OF THE Oriental roof, flat and free from obstructions, and it would cost no more to build them so than in the old fashioned style. By the erection of a large airy and roomy space could thus be utilized and in even the hottest weather the temperature of the house-top would be several degrees lower than inside the buildings. The advantage of adopting this habit to the children alone would be unquestionable, and especially for the children of the poorer, who are literally smothered by the heat at present the crowded, closely closed and confined, transpired

"I can't remember," said Mr. Alpin when a telegraphic operator no longer of New York City, "but he was in a kind of machine."
"How long has it been in use?"
"About a month," he said, "but it is being discontinued because of the monotonous tick of his sounder. He Congressman Campbell, who has shed his color in the Democratic gubernatorial race in Ohio, was elected last fall by only two plurality over Judge Little.

When the appointing power was vested in the Republican party the favorite cry of the Democrats was that the Government employees had nothing to do but draw large salaries. Now, however, that the places have been filled with Democrats they suddenly find that the work is very arduous and the pay entirely inadequate.

The Boston Herald finds that President Cleveland is stronger to-day in the State of Maine than he ever was before. This all might be true and yet not be very much help to Mr. Cleveland. The election this last spring, however, does not indicate that the administration will find its popularity in Maine sufficient to prove it all barrenness.

The Baltimore News says that the "President's utterances and acts have set the seal of condemnation on the spoils system." The Baltimore News says that the acts of the President have been more than the cause of reform in the past and the President's utterances have been the cause of the reform in the future.

The New York Herald thinks it is time to move Mr. Thompson, the man who pointed out the Indian in the picture, from Baltimore, now that he has returned home to take a prominent part in the premises. Thompson and Higgins are the names of the two men who were removed for doing the very work they were appointed to do under the cloak of reform.

The Indian service is enjoying a temporary respite from the attentions of Inspector Morris. Thompson is the Baltimore Inspector, whose appointment was not made by the President, but by the Baltimore Board of Police. The Baltimore Board of Police is the only body in the city which is not under the control of the President.

The Life Saving service has been remembered in a very pleasant way by the Emperor of Germany, as a Washington dispatch in January this year said. The ship Elizabeth went ashore off the Virginia coast, and was wrecked. The life saving crew, who were on duty, were all saved, and the ship was towed to the shore. The Emperor of Germany, who was in the city at the time, was very pleased with the service, and he has ordered that the ship be named after him.

OUR BAR HARBOR CHANGE.

Bangor Beans Captivate Bar Harbor Boats.

Business and Society Gossip.

Rival Bangor Boats "Undertake" Too Much.

[Special Correspondence Bangor and Bangor.]

BAR HARBOR, July 20. The sunset seen from this place last night was surely beautiful, equalling any I have seen elsewhere.

The weather continues lovely, and persons coming here from cities and the change delightful.

The vessels belonging to the Eastern Yacht Club, with the exception of the Mobsen, have gone to their separate ways.

The yacht Lucile, belonging to George Vanderbilt, arrived in the harbor Sunday afternoon. She is a trim swift craft of thirteen tons, was built by Herreshoff, of Bristol, and will be commanded by C. O. Cousins, of Lamoine.

Bar Harbor Hoteliers experienced a separation yesterday over the arrival of a yacht bearing the suggestive name of Dayline.

Some guests disembarked who by the cut of their clothes and single which they wore their jaunty yachting caps gave the impression that they were old salts of first water purity.

"Who could it be and whence came the Dayline?" were questions left in town. They were frivolous and idle, made questions by the score, drove among the cottages with an envious air that was very becoming and argued strongly that they were premier in disguise, ascended Green Mountain later and this morning early left for Rockland leaving everybody but Bangor people in a pleasantly mystified state.

Harry Stewart seems to have captured the following names and asserts they would have answered to them: Dr. R. T. Nealey, G. Irving Bide, George W. Sullivan, Ed. E. Lyon, Fred W. Fernham, Walter McDonald, of Bangor, and H. R. Tumbly, of Boston.

The Green Mountain Hoteliers. Mr. Frank H. Clengue, accompanied by Senator Gilbert and Railroad Commissioners Anderson, Mortland and Wildes, made a tour of inspection over the Green Mountain Railroad which was found in perfect condition.

By the way this company have 1,200 incandescent burners in use and will finish lighting the street this week.

Bangor people are most accommodating. They build hotels, railroads, cable cars, and for the accommodation of our extra funds, but isn't it rather "crowding the mountains" that we should have two undertaking establishments set up by rival Bangorians?

Natural history is looking up here and Mr. Hall, of novelty store fame, wishes he had.

Never Had a Dear Girlie or been tempted into the purchase of the two cousins of the soft dark-eyed creature, for he really gave on broken down bowls and other damaged goods. His two fawns have been damaged to the lawn to the rear of the store, to the detriment of boys and girls who have struck up a friendship with them. Two of his alligators attract the attention of passers-by in the brown street.

Mr. Johnson, of the Porcupine cafe, reports an increasing business. He is to furnish everything but the ice cream for the reception at the Club house August 3.

The lower floor is finished with a paneled wainscot, above which is a limbo. The paper is of a very handsome design, in pale pink and gold. The chairs are of Vienna bent wood, glass and silver were new and rich. A handsome cherry bracket.

Maestri with Revell's Plate Mirror adds a richness to the general effect. The upper floor is in duties for private dinner parties, the woodwork is finished in light green stain, parter of green and gold. Mr. Johnson is a specialty of his bakery, and certainly his rooms look tempting enough.

Mr. C. D. Stanford began business yesterday, in his cosy but elegant quarters.

Miss Callagher, the well-known Bangor milliner, is in town.

Miss Peniston entertained at Pe roses cottage Sunday evening.

Mrs. Musgrave, of New York, gives an informal dinner Wednesday.

An Informal Hop was given at the Belmont on the 20th.

The Limited Express got in about an hour and a half late last night. The first delay the train met was on the Boston and Maine division, caused by the breaking down of some engines, then a delay occurred in transferring the baggage belonging to Mrs. Thomas A. Scott, this side of Portland where the special car bearing that lady was attached to the limit.

Miss Leigh, of Paris, is stopping at the West End Hotel. She is in America trying to raise funds sufficient to pay for grand upon which to establish a home for English and American young men who live in a residential house on condition that the land upon which it stands be purchased. Miss Leigh speaks very highly of this Reception that has been extended here by the American people and press. She spoke upon the subject to Washington society women once at Mrs. Secretary Endicott's and once at the British Legation. She has raised about $20,000 of the $30,000 required. Mrs. W. H. Vanderbilt, of Devon, stone cottage, gave her a donation of $1,000 while in New York. Among other well known people who have contributed to the cause are A. L. Low, J. Pierpont Morgan, Cornelius Vanderbilt, W. W. Corcoran and A. J. Drexel.

There will be a hop at the Rodick tonight. The Richmond flag of the North Atlantic squadron came to harbor yesterday. She will lay until Tuesday afternoon. She will lay until Tuesday afternoon. She will lay until Tuesday afternoon.
